Washington, March 31.-The war department has made public the report of the joint board of army and navy officers convened by special orders of Feb. 8, to take into consideration the physical training of cadets at the military academy and of midshipmen at the naval academy. The report is endorsed by President Roosevelt, who directs that a further report on progress be submitted him sixty days hence. The report is very long. Its most important feature is the recommendation that the Japanese art of ju-jissu be incorporated in the course with boxing and wrestling. The board reports that it is not of great value as a means of physical development, but the of physical development, but the knowledge of the system would inspire the individual with a degree of self-confidence. The board recommends that physical training be extended over the four years' course at each academy, instead of one year as at present.

In discussing the use of swords and after recommending their use on ships, to which objection is made by Acting Secretary Darling, the report says:

of the Seine today formally announced its decision in the case of Carrie Swain he American actress, against Frank Gardner, the American sportsman, in which the actress claimed to be Mr. Gardner's wife. The court rejects the plain-tiff's claims and says the correspondence between the parties shows that no marriage existed. The defendant's bligation therefore was only moral. The decision also rejects the defend-ant's counter claim for damages on the ground that he had not established the plaintiff's bad faith.
